

The Life Services Toolkit

We're here to help you cope and plan after the loss of a loved one.

The time after a loved one has died is difficult for a beneficiary. Tasks like planning a funeral and settling estate matters demand your immediate attention. At the same time, daily obligations continue as you grieve your loss.

Standard Insurance Company (The Standard) is here to help. We have partnered with Health AdvocateSM to offer comprehensive and compassionate services to Group Life insurance beneficiaries.¹ These services are available to you for 12 months after you receive your Life claim letter from The Standard.

What to Expect

When you call the Life Services Toolkit phone assistance line, you can expect personalized attention from highly trained counselors to help you determine what services might be right for you. The following services and others are available:

- Grief Support: Health Advocate counselors who answer calls from beneficiaries understand the stages of grief and what help you may need at any given time. They can provide immediate support by phone — whether it's been days, weeks or months after a death — or refer you to a counselor in your area. Beneficiaries are eligible for up to six face-to-face sessions.

The counselor you speak with may also offer a grief support kit, if appropriate, chosen specifically for your needs. They understand that sometimes, having something you can refer to, at your own pace, might be helpful. If there are children or teens who have been affected by your loss, the counselor may provide age-appropriate books to you that can help them process the loss.

- Legal Services: In addition to online estate planning tools, you can obtain legal assistance from experienced attorneys. You can schedule an initial office visit or a telephone consultation for up to 30 minutes with a network attorney. If you wish to retain a participating attorney after the initial consultation receive a 25% rate reduction from the attorney's normal hourly or fixed-fee rates.
